City of Woodburn Appoints New Chief of Police

WOODBURN, OR - The City of Woodburn is pleased to announce the appointment of Jason Millican as the new Chief of Police for the Woodburn Police Department. Chief Millican brings more than 27 years of law enforcement experience and a deep commitment to public safety, leadership, and community service.

Chief Millican began his career with the Woodburn Police Department in April 1998 as a patrol officer. Chief Millican has held a variety of positions from K9 officer to Acting Chief of Police. Chief Millican held command positions which included Sergeant, Lieutenant, and Deputy Chief.

In addition to his operational experience, Chief Millican brings strong academic and leadership credentials. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice from Western Oregon University. He is a graduate of the prestigious FBI National Academy (Session 274), the Senior Management Institute for Police, and the International Public Safety Leadership & Ethics program.

Chief Millican is a member of the Oregon Association of Chiefs of Police, the International Association of Chiefs of Police, the FBI Law Enforcement Executive Development Association, and serves on the board of the Northwest Accreditation Alliance, underscoring his commitment to professional development and best practices in policing.

“Chief Millican has deep roots in both the department and the Woodburn community. He brings high ethical standards, a strong commitment to diversity, and a demonstrated record of service, leadership, and community engagement,” said Scott Derickson, City Administrator, City of Woodburn. “He is experienced and qualified to lead the department into the future with integrity and vision. ----end---
