For the Whole Family

Maker Mondays

Sept. 10 - Dec. 17; 3:30-4:30 p.m.

Join us every Monday for a different craft or project. Once a month we will have Legos and the rest of the time, we will make a wide range of crafts. Check the activities calendar at woodburnlibrary.org for weekly details.

Sing, Sign & Story Time!

Oct. 11; 10:30 a.m.

Join children's author, Dawn Babb Prochovnic, as she leads a lively, interactive story time that incorporates American Sign Language into theme-oriented activities. Sing songs, learn and review favorite signs, read, play, and interact with your child!

Dawn will be available after the program to answer questions and autograph books, and many of her books will be available to borrow from the library's collection.

Day of the Dead Celebration with Grupo Ritual Azteca Huitzilopochtli

Oct. 13; 2 p.m.

Grupo Ritual Azteca Huitzilopochtli's Aztec dancers will initiate an authentic Día de los Muertos altar with marigold flowers, sugar skulls, candles, and other objects to honor our muertitos. Bring a photo of your departed loved-one to add to the altar. (Photocopies are encouraged; library staff will help you make a free copy of your photo.) Then experience a Día de los Muertos dance ceremony with an opportunity to participate. All ages are welcome. (Children's Area and Multipurpose Rm.)

Holiday Parties

Santa Claus Party

Dec. 21; 1-3 p.m.

Come get a picture with Santa, make a craft and share some cookies with friends and family.

New Year's Party

Dec. 28; 2-3 p.m.

Come ring in the New Year with crafts and snacks.

Storytimes

Sept. 4 – Dec. 29

Storytimes feature books, special guests, activities and crafts that foster creativity and curiosity. Children of all ages are welcome, and parents are encouraged to participate. All storytimes are presented in the Children's Area.

Library Programs

For Teens

Scene to Screen: YA Book/Movie Club

3rd Thursday of the Month; 4:30-7 p.m.

Read the book, then watch the movie with friends to discuss which one was better! Join us at the library for snacks, conversation, and a fun movie night once a month as we watch adaptations of popular YA novels.

September 20: The Hunger Games by Suzanne Collins
October 18: The Fault in Our Stars by John Green
November 15: The Book Thief by Markus Zusak
December 20: Nick and Norah's Infinite Playlist by Rachel Cohn and David Levithan

For Adults

Tech Triage

1st Thursday of the Month; 2-3 p.m.

Our one-on-one technology help program is ongoing, in case you need some help borrowing library e-books and digital audiobooks. Learn how to use basic features on your mobile device (e-reader, tablet, laptop, or phone) and become tech-savvy. For best results, please bring your device with you. (Conference Rm.)

Ukulele Fans of Woodburn

4th Sunday of the Month; 5-6:30 p.m.

Join the Ukulele Fans of Woodburn for fun every month. Get a quick lesson on strumming, and then sing and play for an hour in good company. Don't have a ukulele? Woodburn Public Library is proud to announce we have a ukulele in our collection, available to check out by our patrons! (Multipurpose Rm.)

Buy a Book Bag, Support the Library

The library is now selling book bags at the circulation desk. Each bag is 13" square, 5" deep, and holds about 6-12 books depending on size. The bags cost $2, and every cent goes to the Friends of the Woodburn Library. The Friends, in turn, use the money to support library programs, including summer reading. The Friends of the Woodburn Library is eager to have new members. For more information regarding the Friends, please call the reference desk at 503-982-5252 or visit the library website.

For Seniors

Outreach at the Woodburn Senior Center

2nd & 4th Monday of the month; 10-11 a.m.

WPL's Adult & Teen Librarian will be attending the Woodburn Senior Center's "Coffee Time Anytime" event twice a month to register folks for library cards, help with selecting your next read, and drop off and pick up library books.

Senior Trivia with a Librarian

4th Tuesday of the Month; 2-3 p.m.

Play trivia with your friends at Country Meadows Village. Form teams or play solo. This season's themes are:

September 25 – Ancient Greece and Rome

October 23 – Dinosaurs

November 27 – The Old West

As the fourth Tuesday falls on December 25, there will be no trivia that month.

Homebound Delivery

If you live in Woodburn or in the surrounding towns and are stuck at home due to illness, disability, or age, we can help with our Homebound Delivery Service for library materials. After our initial interview, we will bring you a monthly selection of regular print books, large print books, audiobooks, or movies to suit your tastes and needs. Contact our Adult & Teen Librarian, Kara Wheeler, at 503-982-5254 or Kara.Wheeler@ci.woodburn.or.us to get started.

Senior Book Club

3rd Monday of the Month; 10-11 a.m.

Join us at Country Meadows in the Second Floor Kitchen for coffee, cookies, and conversation about our monthly book selection. Books are available for check out at the Library circulation desk after the preceding book club meeting.

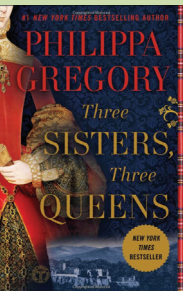

Magic Hour by Kristin Hannah Sept. 17

Dr. Julia Cates was a preeminent child psychiatrist until a tragedy ruined her career. She is called back to her western Washington hometown by her sister Ellie, the police chief, when a six year old girl is found in the Olympic National Forest. Terrified, abandoned, and mute, Julia must find a way to help the child, even as the media descends and raises questions about her competency.

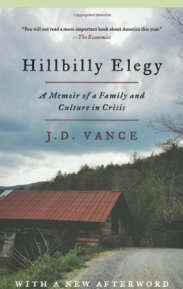

Three Sisters, Three Queens by Philippa Gregory Oct. 15

When Katherine of Aragon comes to England as the first queen of Henry VIII, she meets his two sisters, Margaret and Mary, destined to become the queens of Scotland and France. Despite their family ties, the three queens often find themselves set against each other as their fortunes wax and wane.

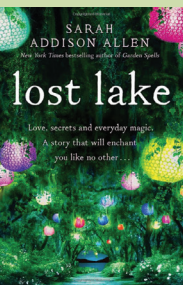

Hillbilly Elegy: A Memoir of a Family and Culture in Crisis by J.D. Vance Nov. 19

Vance might be a Yale Law School graduate, but he grew up poor in Appalachia. Recounting his family's history and the challenges they've faced in search of upward mobility, Vance uses his personal history to illuminate the struggle of America's white working class.

Lost Lake by Sarah Addison Allen Dec. 17

Eby Pim is on the brink of selling Lost Lake to a developer. She plans to keep her collection of lakeside cabins open for one last summer before cashing in and retiring on the proceeds. Kate spent the best summer of her life at Lost Lake when she was twelve, and after a family tragedy she returns for one last taste of that perfect summer with her daughter Devin.
